Provide Responsible Gambling Services

Are you looking to work in the hospitality industry at a casino, club, bar hotel or restaurant? To be employed in any establishment that conducts gaming, you are required by law to successfully complete the training course - SITHGAM022 Provide Responsible Gambling Service (RCG).

This one day course ensures participants will know how to:

- Identify customers to whom service may be refused
- Assist customers to gamble within the appropriate limits
- Deal with problem gamblers
- Assist gambling affected customers

A written assessment needs to be successfully completed.

RCG training remains current for 5 years, after which those certified must renew their training.

The training must be delivered by a Registered Training Organisation (RTO).

Delivery

RCG is a one day course and takes 6 hours (excluding breaks) to complete. If a student is completing both RSA and RCG combined, these must be completed on separate days.

Conditions

1. Be Trained by Barringtons cannot enrol a student in an RCG course if they hold : A current or recently expired (within 28 days of expiry) competency and or an RCG Interim certificate issued within 5 years from the ' Valid for duties date'.

2. Once you have successfully completed the NSW RCG assessment you must also complete the Liquor and Gaming NSW online RCG assessment in order to be issued with an RCG Interim Certificate by Liquor and Gaming NSW.

Pricing

$155 per person and $330 for RCG + RSA.
